Itinerary from Bergerac

70 km – 1h15 minutes

Once you leave the airport, turn right onto the main road, then right again at the roundabout onto the new N21 (towards Sarlat/Cahors).

After crossing the Dordogne river, take the right turning off the roundabout onto the D660 (towards Sarlat). There is a petrol station here, which may be useful to you on your way back before dropping off the car.

This road number will change several times and you will cross the Dordogne river at Lalande (just after you have gone through the village centre, there is a sharp turn right to take you over the bridge) and also just before St-Cyprien, but keep heading towards Sarlat passing through Lalande, Le Buisson, Siorac-en-Périgord and Saint Cyprien until you pass through Beynac.

Once out of Beynac, you will go under a railway bridge (12½ ft/3.9m), and then you will turn immediately right (towards Castelnaud /Daglan).

After about ½ mile (1km), turn right onto the D57 heading towards Castelnaud, and crossing the Dordogne river.

The D57 then leaves Castelnaud (towards Saint Cybranet/Daglan) bearing to the left (heading up the Céou valley). After 2½ miles (4 km), you will arrive in Saint Cybranet.

Go through the village (towards Cénac/Domme). After crossing the Céou river, the road bears right.

La Belle Demeure is on the bend, the house before last on the left, the only one without a gate and with a blue sign outside.

Pull into our little courtyard so you can unload your car. Once you are settled in, you can then park your car in our field over the road.
